

Participation levels

Inform

A simple transmission of information. The group or individuals are invited to listen. The elements shared are not intended to be discussed.

Consult

A solicitation of opinions from one or more people that will allow the "consultants" to make a decision without having to retain all the ideas shared.

Co-create

A collective time to reflect, imagine and design together a solution, a process...

Co-decide

A time of convergence allowing a group to take a decision together and/or validate a common action plan.
